Dear

As you know, I recently approved some modifications in Science and Technology Advisory Panel procedures. Among the changes was the introduction of a four-year term for members. I realize that you have been with the Panel in excess of that period, but I should like to have you extend your membership for another four years. STAP is currently examining certain issues in which your experience should prove particularly valuable, and the Panel will be more effective if you remain on board. You have always provided sound advice and comments, and I want to continue to draw on your expertise.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
